Professor Sheryl Zimmerman is Kenan Flagler Bingham Distinguished Professor of Social Work and Public Health at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She was inducted as a Fellow of the American Academy of Social Work and Social Welfare in 2012. She has published extensively on topics related to the care of older adults in residential care facilities. Notably:

Professor Philip Sloane is a nationally recognised expert in family medicine and geriatrics. He is well-known for translational research in topics such as primary and residential care for persons with dementia, and antibiotic stewardship in long term care.

Prof. Zimmerman and Prof. Sloane are co-Directors of the Program on Ageing, Disability, and Long-Term Care of the Cecil G. Sheps Center for Health Services Research at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. They are also current editors-in-chief of the Journal of the American Medical Directors Association (JAMDA).

SYMPOSIUM

Ageing, Disability and Long-Term Care

Discover how to improve the well-being of older persons and the quality of care they receive by examining issues such as dementia care, end-of-life care and hospice, person-centered care and practices, medication administration, caregiver training and education, falls prevention, and other topics.

BREAKOUT SESSION

Implementing Integrated Care into Assisted Living - The Road (Finally) Taken

Gain insights into the benefits of providing onsite medical care in assisted living communities. This integrated care model, formally known as home-based primary care, is designed to reduce costs and improve care quality by preventing unnecessary emergency department visits and hospitalisations.

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION UNTIL 31 OCTOBER, 2019

Concessionary rates are applicable for registrants from eligible Community Care Organisations, select Social Service Agencies, and full-time students.

Register now at www.aic.sg/events
For enquiries, email conference@aic.sg

Organised by

Also featuring Caregiver Public Forum 2020, organised specially for caregivers. For more information, please visit www.aic.sg/cf-forum2020.