

FACTSHEET

Mid-Term Scholarship for Social Workers

Overview

With $6 million to develop Medical Social Workers (MSWs), the Ministry of Health (MOH) and MOH Holdings offer a Mid-Term Scholarship for the Community Care sector.

Mid-Term Scholars will be posted to an assigned Community Care institution, where they will undergo training to acquire core social work competencies. There will be job rotations to different care settings for greater exposure, including the public acute sector as well as opportunities for further professional development.

Funding Criteria

- Fully-paid tuition fees
- Monthly allowance of $1,000 during the entire scholarship period

Eligibility criteria

- Singaporean and Singapore Permanent Resident (PR) students currently pursuing a degree in social work
- Outstanding candidates with a desire to serve in the Community Care sector upon graduation
- Must not be a recipient of any other scholarship or bond
- Minimum GPA of 3.0

Evaluation of Applications

- Centralised panel interview with a panel comprising institutions that are prepared to take in scholars
  - Candidates will be assessed on their passion and suitability to work in Community Care sector